Do You Disagree With The Decision?

If you do not agree with this decision, you have the right to appeal. We will review MAX S HANN's case and look at any new facts you have. A person who did not make the first decision will decide his case. We will review the parts of the decision that you think are wrong and correct any mistakes. We may also review the parts of our decision that you think are right. We will make a decision that may or may not be in his favor.

- You have 60 days to ask for an appeal.
- The 60 days start the day after you receive this letter. We assume you received this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show us that you did not receive it within the 5-day period.
- You must have a good reason if you wait more than 60 days to ask for an appeal.
- You can file an appeal with any Social Security office. You must ask for an appeal in writing. Please use our "Request for Reconsideration" form, SSA-561-U2. You may go to our website at www.socialsecurity.gov/online/ to find the form. You can also call, write, or visit us to request the form. If you need help to fill out the form, we can help you by phone or in person.

If You Want Help With Your Appeal

You can have a friend, representative, or someone else help you. There are groups that can help you find a representative or give you free legal services if you qualify. There are also representatives who do not charge unless you win your appeal. Your local Social Security office has a list of groups that can help you with your appeal.

If you get someone to help you, you should let us know. If you hire someone, we must approve the fee before he or she can collect it. And if you hire a representative who is eligible for direct pay, we will withhold up to 25 percent of any past due benefits to pay toward the fee.
